Featured Presenters

Jennifer Hartstein, Psy.D. is a child and family psychologist and a past contributing psychologist for CBS' The Early Show. She has published and presented on teen-related issues, and has been asked to speak as an expert on a variety of psychological issues on media outlets that include Dr. Oz, The Today Show and CBS This Morning. "Dr. Jen" is the founder of Hartstein Psychological Services, a group psychotherapy practice in New York City. She has received intensive training in adolescent suicide assessment and has specialized in this population for several years. Prior to entering private practice, "Dr. Jen" was the Clinical Director of the Discovery Center at the Child and Family Institute of St Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center. She is currently an Adjunct Professor at Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology, Yeshiva University. Dr. Jen serves with both Active Minds and We're All a Little "Crazy" to promote mental health. She is a self-esteem ambassador for Dove's Real Beauty campaign and was on the advisory board for MTV's A Thin Line, which focused on youth digital behavior. She is the author of Princess Recovery: A How-to Guide for Raising Strong, Empowered Girls Who Can Create Their Own Happily Ever Afters.

Steph Jensen, MS, LPC is an award-winning author and international speaker. She combines her experience in the fields of education and counseling with research, practical strategies and humor to address challenging behaviors and to build positive relationships with kids. Steph has worked as a classroom teacher, education consultant and international speaker. In recent years, she has applied her passion for adolescents to focus on the dynamics of relational aggression, social-emotional learning, and positive behavior interventions. She is the author of Thrive in the Hive, Mom's Choice Award-winning Princess Priscilla and the Bully-Bee Day, Princess Priscilla and the Mood Ring Rainbow and her latest Princess Priscilla and the Great Beezilla!

Baruti Kafele is an award-winning principal, internationally-renowned education speaker and best-selling author. A highly-regarded urban public school educator in New Jersey, Principal Kafele distinguished himself in the classroom and as a school leader. As a middle and high school principal, he led the transformation of four different schools, including "The Mighty" Newark Tech, which went from a low-performing school in need of improvement to national recognition by the National Association of State Directors of Career Technical Education, and U.S. News and World Report Magazine recognizing it three times as one of America's best high schools. Currently, Principal Kafele is one of the most sought-after education speakers for transforming the attitudes of at-risk student populations in America. He is the author of a number of books including Closing the Attitude Gap. His latest book: Is My School a Better School Because I Lead It?

Dr. Robyn R. Jackson, is passionate about the profession of teaching. She helps teachers and administrators understand the principles of mastery teaching and shows them how to apply these principles to help every student succeed. As a former high school AP English teacher and award-winning middle school administrator, she refined these principles on her own journey to becoming a master teacher.

Because she believes that every child deserves a master teacher and that any teacher can become a master teacher, Dr. Jackson founded Mindsteps™ Inc. to provide the right kind of practice for teachers and for the administrators who lead them. She doesn't just want to change how we teach; Dr. Jackson wants to change the way that we think about teaching. She has presented her own research on equity, access, rigor and instructional strategies at several national conferences. She is the author of ten books published in four languages including The Differentiation Workbook, Never Work Harder than Your Students, How to Support Struggling Students, How to Motivate Resistant Learners, Real Engagement and You Can Do This: Hope and Help for New Teachers.

Kaye Randall is a nationally known author and speaker who has led professional seminars throughout North America on student mental health, bullying, self-injury, depression, anxiety and anger – as well as youth leadership and student empowerment. Kaye has inspired seminar participants through her practical insights, humor, and proactive strategies for helping children and adolescents. She continues to provide clinical services to both children and adolescents and has been named social worker of the year by the Council on Adoptable Children.

Kaye is the co-author of See My Pain: Creative Strategies & Activities for Helping Young People Who Self-Injure (featured in USA Today), 102 Creative Strategies for Working with Depressed Children & Adolescents, and Mean Girls: 101½ Creative Strategies and Activities for Working with Relational Aggression.

Brian Mendler is a dynamic speaker who trains thousands of educators a year through his affiliation with Teacher Learning Center, focusing on how to be successful with even the most difficult students. He is a certified K-12 and special education teacher with extensive experience working with challenging students in general ed, self-contained and inclusion settings.

Brian often draws upon his own experience as a very disruptive student with severe, undiagnosed ADHD and reading difficulties. Brian is the author or coauthor of That One Kid, The Taming of the Crew, Power Struggles 2nd Edition and the bestseller Discipline with Dignity 3rd Edition.
